

At first I had hesitations about the SimplePay plan. It was set up in a way that I had never experienced before and it seemed too good to be true but I thought I would try it for a year. I can tell you that I have been very happy with the plan – the clarity, the ease of use and not having to worry about different medical bills. All of my medical costs are in one monthly statement and it makes it really easy for me.

Deanna Moon

Human Resources Partner

